WANT TO BE WITH YOU!

...I want to be with people who value compassion, justice, love and truth, though they have different thoughts and opinions about all sorts of things...

I want to be with people who see me in my goodness and dignity, who also see my failings and foibles, and who still love me.

I want to be with people who feel their inter-connection with all existence and let it guide their footfalls upon the earth...

I want to be with people who are willing to walk the tight rope that is life and who will hold my hand as I walk mine.

I want to be with people who let church call them into a different way of being in the world...

I want to be with people who covenant to be honest, engaged and kind, who strive to keep their promises and hold me to the promises I make...

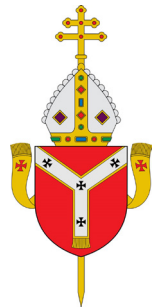

I want to be with people who know that human community is often warm and generous, sometimes challenging and almost always a grand adventure.

In short, I want to be with people like you.

Dana E. Worsnop

At St. Joseph's, we pride ourselves on our strong and effective governance structure. Our leadership team is dedicated to ensuring the smooth operation of the church and the well-being of our community members. With a focus on transparency, accountability, and inclusivity, we strive to make decisions that benefit the greater good and uphold the values of our faith. We are grateful for the guidance and support of our dedicated leaders who work tirelessly to ensure the success of our Vision and Mission.

The Divine Mercy

The Divine Mercy message is one we can call to mind simply by remembering ABC:

A – Ask for His Mercy. God wants us to approach Him in prayer constantly, repenting of our sins and asking Him to pour His mercy out upon us and upon the whole world.

B – Be merciful. God wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others. He wants us to extend love and forgiveness to others just as He does to us.

C – Completely trust in Jesus. God wants us to know that all the graces of His mercy can only be received by our trust. The more we open the door of our hearts and lives to Him with trust, the more we can receive.

100 Club Results

The March draw was held in the Monastery on 4th April. The number of entries was 90 and the winners were: £400 Andrew Milligan (39), £100 M. Cadien-Kinsella (42), £50 Elizabeth Millar (118). Thank you once again to those who support the parish in this way.

EASTER FLOWERS

We can't thank you enough Cicy and Anne Moriarty and Ah Bee Loh for your generous sponsorship of the altar flowers for Easter. Your kindness and support mean so much to us, and we are truly grateful for your contribution.

Please know that your thoughtfulness will be remembered in our prayers during this special time of year. Your generosity helps to enhance our church's Easter celebrations and bring beauty to our worship space.

THANK YOU We worship and serve a "give first" God, who calls us to imitate God's selfless, life-giving ways. When we give to what God cares about, we share in the work of building God's Kingdom. When we give generously, we share in the true nature of God's abundant love. Last weekend's collection amounted to £3220. Thank you very much.

Conservation and Development Committee:

Betty Pires, Naomi Day, Yosien burke, and Federico Faravelli.

I wanted to take a moment to express my deep gratitude for all the hard work and dedication you put into preserving and enhancing St. Joseph's. Your efforts in conservation, beautification, and sustainable development have truly made a positive impact on our parish and have created a more vibrant and sustainable environment for all of us to enjoy.

Your commitment to protecting our natural resources, promoting responsible land use, and advocating for the preservation of our heritage is truly commendable. Your passion for creating a better future for our community is inspiring, and I am grateful for all that you do.

Thank you for your tireless efforts and for your dedication to making our parish a better place for everyone. Your work does not go unnoticed, and I am thankful to have such a dedicated and passionate group of individuals working to make our community a better place.
